construction time anticipated to completion and ten years to full capacity on water supply and other variables. Relocation of cabins may be required time of [illegible]uisition of the right of way. The four main fishing camps re-, at present, under the control of the Strawberry Water Users Association.

The Bureau of Reclamation will control 300 feet around the edge of the r. They will eventually turn over operational control to the Forest Service ther public agencies. Forest service land will be extended to include re-tional areas.

Dr. Thompson stressed the need for pre-planning on public and private land for future development. Planning, zoning, housing requirements and build-codes have been or will be adopted by Wasatch County. On Government lands tation plans will continue to be cleared through present State and Federal cies as required.

Mr. Lyle Smith of the Forest Service said that many campers are now encroach-
